Autumn 2014

Editorial News

NEW RECOLLECTIONS...

A further six new titles have been signed up to add to those already due for release during 2015.

SUBSCRIBERS' EDITION...

The next Subscribers' Limited Edition will be The Golden Valley Line Past & Present by John Stretton and Tim Maddocks and is due for release on 20 December 2014.

Closing date for orders on this edition is 30 November 2014 so be sure to decide in good time - once they are gone they are gone!

Archive News

The NOSTALGIA Collection Archive has grown by a further 500+ images following the purchase of a 35mm slide collection from our good friend and Silver Link Author Peter Butler (History of the Railways of Northamptonshire) Peter has been photographing Britain's railways for many decades and this slide collection, featuring stations, is but a small part of his extensive collection. Selected images (example right) will appear in future volumes from Silver Link.

Memories of UNITED COUNTIES Part 4

This is the fourth and final volume in Caroline Cleaveley's affectionate and comprehensive series looking at what began as the United Counties Omnibus Co Ltd 100 years ago on the eve of the First World War, and featuring

The first half of the book provides a concise history of the company by Roger Warwick and Steve Loveridge. The second section contains further memories following on from those in Parts 1 to 3 of the series, then we are treated to a hugely varied selection of photographs from the archive of Derek Watson, from Bedford.

To finish in grand style, for the first time Part 4 contains many colour photographs, and is thus a fitting conclusion to this popular series
